

Ronnie Neal

Ronnie Neal is the Outreach Coordinator at the Thunderbird Challenge Program. He has been with TCP for two years. He strongly believes in the mission of Thunderbird in helping at risk youth become healthy, accountable citizens. Ronnie previously worked for 12 years as a Public Health Educator for Cherokee Nation Public Health. He also serves as the Pastor of Coo-Y-Yah Baptist Church and has held this role since 2016. Ronnie and his wife May, reside in Claremore and have five children and four grandchildren. Out of all the many “hats” he wears, his favorite is being “Pop” to his grandchildren.
