

Vice Chairperson: Evett Barham

Evett Barham is a coach and consultant for Franklin Covey Education, Leader in Me. Over the past 20 years she has spent her educational career working in the middle of Northeast Oklahoma. She began her career as a math and science teacher in Claremore Sequoyah Public Schools teaching 7th through 12th graders and then worked in Pryor Public Schools where she found her passion in leadership development. In addition, Evett has worked with Mayes County HOPE Coalition since 2008 with a recent position as the HOPE4Youth Project Coordinator. Evett received a B.S. in Mathematics Education and a minor in Earth and Biological Science from Oklahoma State University. In addition, she has her MA in Educational Leadership from Southern Nazarene University. Currently, she serves on a research team exploring Leadership Styles within various cultures. Evett lives in Pryor, Oklahoma with her husband and three daughters. She loves serving her community, reading, camping, traveling, and spending time with her family