

Jeff Kerr

Jeff Kerr is a dedicated community leader in Mayes County, actively involved in business, education, and public service. In addition to his roles on the Mayes County HOPE board, he serves on the Leadership Team at Gathering Church, as a board member of CLASS in Chouteau, and the treasurer for the Rural Water District Number 6.

With a Business degree in Accounting from Northeastern State University, Jeff has built a successful 20+ year banking career, currently serving as Senior Vice President and Branch Manager at Welch State Bank. His leadership and financial expertise have made a lasting impact on the local business landscape.

Beyond his professional and community commitments, Jeff values family. He and his wife, Marla, have been married for over 30 years and are proud parents of three children and two grandchildren.
