

Rebekah King

Rebekah's passion and commitment to delivering exceptional business development, innovative social media strategy, and high-impact leadership can be seen in the array of high-impact positions she has held over the years. During her time as a Business Development Trainer at Northeast Tech, a Social Media Strategist and Account Manager at Grand Splash Marketing, and her extensive experience as a business owner and CEO at Southern Darlin's Boutique, Rebekah has never failed to deliver exceptional sales growth, brand and reputation management, and a passion to accelerate and improve business outcomes. She is eager to continue leveraging her business savvy to deliver outstanding sales and public relations outcomes.